TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Working with Covid and keeping us all safe

- Students to bring a labelled bottle of water.
- Please use the toilet before attending classes or before the class starts.
- No extra bags or jackets allowed in the venue unless necessary.
- Each student must sanitise their hands on entry to the class (bring your hand sanitisers).
- For enrolled students, if you are experiencing any symptoms of covid or a flu as well as someone within your household, we would expect for you to self test before attending your class.
- No refund is granted for a missed class. If there is an online option for your specific class we can give you access to this while you are in quarantine.
- If you miss a class or are unable to attend a class, no catch-up/ class swaps are allowed. If space is available and you wish to attend a physical class to catch-up, you have the option to pay for an additional class £13. To book your space, you must email the KBM team with at least 3 days notice and we can check if space is available on the desired class time.
- Should the government enforce a lockdown, the current course will continue as an online live class for the enrolled student. Details & login information will be shared at that time. No course refund will be given.
- Our requests are in good faith and to help keep us all safe while attending classes.

KBM Enrolment Rules, Regulations and Procedures

- All classes are run by KBM teachers and assistants.
- To secure your place on your desired course, you must complete this enrolment form with full payment before the term commences.
- Any late payments will incur a charge of £15.
- If you miss a class or are unable to attend a class, no catch-up/ class swaps are allowed. If you wish to pay for an additional class £13, please email the KBM team and we can check if space is available on the desired class time.
- All students are required to wear KBM uniform t-shirts to every class. Please purchase or order in the dance class.
- No course or merchandise refunds will be granted under any circumstances unless a place on your desired class is unavailable or an item purchased is default and we have been notified via email within seven days of purchase. Term fees are not permitted to be deferred to another person/student.
- Should a parent/guardian or student not adhere to the terms and conditions and guidelines outlined here, KBM can refuse enrolment to the course.
- Students are expected to arrive on time to their classes and wait outside the studio if they are early until the previous class finishes. We appreciate consistent attendance and punctuality. Please inform us if you are unable to attend a particular class.
- It is the student/parent guardians responsibility to check the class timetable with term dates at the start of each term. Dates can change during the term and the KBM team will therefore advise for you to view and take note of any term updates.
- Students should wear loose and comfortable clothing when in class. Please remove all accessories/jewellery for the duration of the class.
- Students are not permitted to chew gum or eat in class.
- Please bring drinking water to classes not all venues have water/drinks facilities.
- Smoking and or drinking alcohol is prohibited.

- Mobile phones should be switched off before entering the class. Students are not permitted to film during class unless granted permission from the teacher.
- Choreography taught in the Masterclass is strictly copyright of KSPARK entertainments Ltd incorporating Karan's Bollywood Masterclass. You must obtain written permission from your teacher before you can perform or teach it to any third party. Anyone who is known to be doing so can be fined a minimum of £200 and be expelled from the dance course.
- If a student wishes to perform the dance they have learnt in the Masterclass they must first email info@kspark.co.uk and obtain written consent from their teacher/KSPARK management.
- Family and or friends of students must wait outside the studio while the class is in progress. Parents/Guardians are invited to watch the last 10 minutes of the class in week 1, 6 and 12 of the course (12 week course) or 1,5 and 10 (10 week course). Whilst social distancing applies there will be no viewing in class for parents.
- Students who drive should arrive early to find a car parking space in an appropriate parking area.
- If a class is missed the student will be registered as absent. The student will be unable to make up this class at another location or another term and under no circumstances are eligible for a refund. Only KBM loyalty students are able to attend catch up classes in the event that they miss a class (only 3 classes per term). If the student wishes to catch up with what they have missed they can use the online videos or pay to attend another class or arrange a private tuition with their class teacher at a mutually agreed time and cost. Contact KBM about your preferred option.
- No photography or filming is permitted in class. KBM teachers will announce when parents/guardians are allowed to film.
- I give consent/We give consent for my child/children to be included in photographs and videos taken by KSPARK entertainments Ltd incorporating Karan's Bollywood Masterclass. All photographs and videos taken are copyright of KSPARK entertainments Ltd for all publicity material.
- Your KBM Online video access is available for 6 months after your term is completed. Access will remain available for this duration only for enrolled/current students of Karan's Bollywood Masterclass.
- KSPARK entertainments Ltd incorporating Karan's Bollywood Masterclass reserves the right to alter the times and days of the classes. If a teacher is absent for a class, a suitable substitute teacher will be provided. If no other teacher is available and if the class needs to be cancelled for any reason then we will inform all students by e-mail/text message (SMS). If this situation should occur then students should rest assured that we will definitely make up for the missed class on another day.
